The Spy Game- The Spy Game follows an action-packed storyline in which someone (or something) from your company has been kidnapped! And, yes, we're betting on you and your fearless co-workers to save the day once again. Video clues are created before hand and delivered throughout the game on our BlackBerry Curves. These clues tell the story of a kidnapping (or data heist) and contain riddles that the teams will unravel to solve the final mission and rescue. Throughout the game, each team will gather around the phone and watch these customized video dispatches. Ultimately, all the teams collaborate on one heroic, final task to rescue your intrepid leader. The result is high action drama, and we promise, all will end well!
